Independent Accommodation

Living on your own in a new country can be an overwhelming experience, with many new rules, responsibilities and terminology involved. Make sure you know your rights!

Review information on renting in Canada, tenancy agreements, tenants' rights, and dealing with landlords:

- Residential Tenancy Act: These are the rules for landlords and tenants in residential tenancies.
- Know your rights and responsibilities when Starting a Tenancy, During a Tenancy and Ending a Tenancy.
- Solving problems: Sometimes problems can occur when renting a home. Explore your options to resolving problems.
- Avoid Scams

Independent Accommodation

Finding a place

The following sites are provided as a resource for students. ILAC IC does not endorse them or their rental listings.

- Liv.rent
- Global Education City
- Rentsline
- Craigslist
- Apartment Love
- PadMapper
- Rentseeker.ca
- Sparrow
- RentRadar

Older buildings can often have bed bugs. Check to see if there are bed bugs in your neighborhood of interest by reviewing the bed bug registry map.

Independent Accommodation

After you find a place

Inspection

- Before signing a tenancy agreement, inspect the unit (or have someone you trust inspect it for you). Make sure appliances and taps work and that there are locks on all the doors.

Deposit and Documentation

- Get details of your tenancy agreement (also called a lease or rental agreement) in writing.
- Take photos to document any existing damage or repairs needed before you move in. If the landlord says something will be repaired or cleaned before you move in, write this down in the agreement.
- Make sure both you and your landlord have a copy of all the agreements you have signed. If you make any changes to the documents, both you and your landlord should initial next to each change.
- Prove that you paid. Pay by cheque or money order or get a receipt if you pay in cash.
- A tenancy agreement should always outline the terms, conditions, and duration of the rental agreement. It is important to review all 3 before signing.
- Tenancy agreements are typically one year or two years. Some short-term tenancy agreements are usually three-months or six-months terms. Typically, when a fixed-term tenancy agreement in BC ends, it automatically turns into a month-to-month tenancy agreement that has no end date.

Living Costs

Although the current average asking price for rental housing is challenging to determine, several rental listing websites offer rent reports for the Vancouver market based on active listings on their websites. Rents vary for furnished and unfurnished apartments.

- Liv.rent Vancouver rent report
- Rentals.ca Vancouver rent report
- Zumper.com Vancouver rent report

Additional costs

Additional costs of renting an apartment can include:

- Utilities (e.g., heat, water, electricity)
- Internet
- Cable TV
- Security deposit (one-time cost)
- Pet deposit (one-time cost)
- Apartment furnishings
- Laundry
- Parking
- Renter's insurance
